

FVA-376 British Adaptations

This is a film course exploring ideas on Film Adaptations of British Literature. The students will have the opportunity to learn about British Literature reading, watching movies and visiting important sites related to the work studied. We will be immersing ourselves in the world of

*WEEK 1 - The Book and Its Context

We will analyze the context of classics of the British Literature that have been adapted to the screen. This discussion will be developed through selected readings, the screening of selected film clips and presentations.

*WEEK 2 - The Film and Its Context

We will discuss the context of British Film Adaptations. This discussion will be developed through selected readings, the screening of selected film clips and presentations.

*WEEK 3 and 4 - Literature, Theater and Film: Make It Your Own

We will discuss the particularities of both arts, Literature and Film, and of the process of adapting classics of the literature to Film. This discussion will be developed through selected readings, attendance to a theatrical production and screening of selected film clips and the production of a movie project.